

The Difference.
Wise Guy—When a single woman believes in practicing economy she husbands her means.
The Really Wise—And when a married woman believes that economy should be practiced she means her husband.

Be a Joy-Walker, "Gets-It" for Corns

3 Drops, 3 Seconds—Corns Are Doomed!

"My Corns Peel Clean Off, With 'Gets-It'!"
of the world's magic and only genuine corn-peeler "Gets-It." Then and then only will you be sure that your corn will loosen from your toe so that you can peel it right off gloriously easy with your fingers. Take no chances of continued pain and soreness—why use greasy, irritating salves, plasters that shift and press into the "quick" razors and "diggers" that make corns bleed and also grow faster? Use painless, easy, always sure "Gets-It." There's only one like it in the world—that's "Gets-It." Millions have tried and O. K'd it for years. It never fails. "Gets-It" the guaranteed, money back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Flagstaff and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Wm. Marlar and the Kahl Drug Co.

TEN COMMANDMENTS TO HELP WIN THE WAR

The spirit which has enabled the French to endure the terrible hardships which the German invasion has imposed upon them, and the watchfulness necessary in every turn of every day life in order to defeat the Hun plan to "bleed her white," are we brought forth in a pamphlet issued by the League of Patriots at its headquarters in Paris.

The cardinal points to be observed by the civilian population in backing up the warriors are summarized as the "Ten War Commandments," as follows:

1. Do not forget that we are at war. In your smallest expenditures never lose sight of the interests of the native land.
2. Economize on the products necessary for the life of the country: Coal, bread, meat, milk, sugar, wine, butter, beans, cloths, leather, oil. Accept rations, ration yourself as to food, clothing, amusements.
3. Save the products of French soil, least some day you deprive your father, your son, your husband, who are shedding their blood to defend you.
4. Save the products that France must buy from foreign countries. Do not drain reserves of gold, which are indispensable to victory.
5. Waste nothing. All waste is a crime which imperils the national defense—prolongs the war.
6. Buy only according to your needs. Do not hoard provisions; your selfishness raises prices and deprives those of smaller means of things indispensable to existence.
7. Do not travel unnecessarily. Reflect that our trains are, before all, destined for the transportation of the troops, the feeding of the population, the needs of our national production.
8. Do not remain idle. According to your age and your ability, work for your country. Do not consume without producing. Idleness is desertion.
9. Accept without murmuring the privations which are imposed upon you. Reflect upon the sufferings of those who are fighting for you, upon the martyrdom of the population whose hearts have been devastated by the enemy.
10. Remember that victory belongs to those who can hold out a quarter of an hour the longest.

DON'T WRITE TO WASHINGTON ABOUT YOUR OVERSEAS MAIL

The Military Postal Express has been established overseas and is now in operation, according to word received at headquarters from General Pershing. Through this service, letters to and from soldiers overseas are taken out of the regular postal deliveries and put into the hands of the military organization, which will facilitate their delivery.

If families or individuals do not receive their letters as promptly as they feel they should, they are instructed to go to the nearest Red Cross chapter and make their inquiries of the committee on civilian relief. But NOT WRITE TO WASHINGTON. This responsibility has been delegated to the Red Cross, which takes charge of such inquiries through local civilian relief committees.

In addressing letters for overseas delivery, be very careful to write legibly the full name, rank, unit and regimental order of the soldier. Write "American Expeditionary Force" out in full, for sometimes it is confused with Australian Expeditionary Force.

Bombing for Room.

A tired "Tommy" loaded with equipment, climbed into a crowded London bus. No one offered him a seat. Finally he took from his haversack a small bomb.

"This is one of things we use there, you know," he remarked to two or three passengers. "See this pin here? When I pull it out like this it should explode 60 seconds later. If I put it back again the thing is harmless." Then, beginning to search frantically: "Where on earth did I put that pin?"

Within one minute the bus was empty. "Tommy" watched the passengers leave. Then, putting the bomb back in his haversack, he stretched himself full length on the cushioned seat.

Contentment is merely a lack of desire.

Approved: C. T. WOOLFOLK, Chairman.
Attest: TOM L. REES, Clerk.

RED-HEADED CHILDREN SCARCE IN FRANCE

Among the varied activities of the American Red Cross being mother to the French war orphans adopted by the men of American Expeditionary Forces is a somewhat unusual one. When a company or regiment decides to adopt or more orphans the men send their collected funds to their official newspaper, "The Stars and Stripes," which in turn places it with the Red Cross. "The Greatest Mother in the World" then selects and takes charge of the children.

Girls are most frequently asked for, but if no choice is made the Red Cross generally favors the adoption of boys. The many requests for red-headed kiddies—which cannot be filled—has brought to public attention the rather novel fact that there are no red-headed children in France. However, right at present there is no more popular color in France than red—when it assumes the shape of the reversed cross.
